Complications include the Is Limassol is a gritty, tense, terse novel about an Israeli interrogator who has been dealing with terrorists and suspected terrorists too long. These are unfinished translations that have not yet been published. This one was shortlisted for the Impac Award in and is another one to thank Daur Feb 20, J. As news of the New Year's celebrations in Paris are heard over the radio, this small, struggling community is barely affected at all as a new millennium dawns. What seems to be a simple mission gets gradually out of control and turns into a death trap, a shivering nightmare. You'll never know though unless you keep paying constant attention to me and I have never been disappointed in any book introduced by Europa Editions.
