When I read a book, I want to get away from everyday life and be entertained, not feel like it's a Friday night when the pubs have closed. It could have perhaps done with another editing run by the author.

As far as the writing goes, this can use quite a bit of polishing. IW is a master at creating some really detestable characters and his gore descriptions are enough to make you wince. I'm not sure if I will continue the series.

Yes I was but, as the author seems to have plans for at least one sequel, I'm OK. There are also one unexpected and surprising Full review on my blog:
